

"I Have/Who Has?" - 0101.1.5

Cut out the following cards. (These can be pasted onto paper plates.) Mix up the cards and give to your students. Students will form a line around the room by answering the questions. The last question will answer the first!

First card

I have right.

Who has an object that shines in the sky?

I have pear.

Who has a word used in a friendly letter?

I have sun.

Who has a make-believe story?

I have dear.

Who has a parent's male child?

I have tale.

Who has the number after one?

I have son.

Who has a part of a dog?

I have two.

Who has a fruit that is green and grows on a tree?

I have tail.

Who has another word for also?

I have too.

Who has another word for two things together?

I have here.

Who has come together?

I have pair.

Who has an animal who lives in the woods?

I have meet.

Who has the first number after zero?

I have deer.

Who has a word for putting thoughts into print?

I have one.

Who has a part of a boat?

I have write.

Who has the place you are standing?

I have sail.

Who has one penny?

I have meat.

Who has past tense of win?

I have cent.

Who has listen to sounds?

I have hear.

Who has something to eat?

I have won.

Who has the opposite of left?