

1. Physical features on Earth's surface are called _____?	2. The process of breaking rock into silt, sand, clay and other tiny pieces is called _____?
3. Name 2 causes of weathering	4. The process of moving sediment from one place to another is _____
5. The process of dropping sediments in a new location is _____.	6. Most rivers deposit sediments along their banks. The fertile flat areas are known as _____.
7. Deposits of sediment at the mouth of a river forms new land called _____.	8. Name the land feature that was carved out by the Colorado River and is about a mile deep.
9. Wind erosion can blow sand into large mounds called _____.	10. Thick sheets of ice that erode sediment and rock are called _____.

--	--