Queen Victoria was born on May 24th, 1819 in Kensington Palace in London. She became queen of England in 1837 when she was only 18 years old. When her husband Albert died in 1861, Victoria went into mourning for 10 years. Then on the 50th anniversary of her reign, there was a Golden Jubilee that cheered her up. Victoria was the first English monarch to visit France in over 400 years.
